What your soul is looking for!

As we all know and have experienced, “Life” is full of twists, turns, and surprises. As we live out our lives, we face many hurts, doubts, and problems. The writer of the book of Ecclesiastes states that time and chance happen to man, but the Apostles Paul tells us that God works all things together for our good if we love Him and are called to His purposes.

I’m sure you would agree that we have many questions about what to do next, where to go, and why things happen the way they do. Life doesn’t always go according to our plans and expectations; our souls cry out at times with worry, doubt, anxiety, and fear, and “Life” seems burdensome. So how do we keep moving forward with a positive attitude, hope, peace, a spirit of joy and contentment in spite of the unexpected circumstances along the road of “Life”?

Jesus tells us that HE has come to give us life and life more abundant.

Years ago, while reflecting on my life and the legacy to my family that would be pleasing to my Savior and LORD Jesus, the Holy Spirit began ministering to me about legacy (which, by the way, will be the next eBook I write, God willing, whose working title is Illuminating the Paths of Those that Follow Us), but I digress. In the process of thinking about life and legacy, the Holy Spirit dropped this little nugget into my consciousness—LIFE = Living In Full Expectation.

“Living In Full Expectation of what?” I asked. “Of MY Promises and Presence, which is MY Grace,” He replied, “For MY Grace is sufficient for you, only MY Grace and MY Presence will satisfy your soul, and are the pathway to the abundant life.”

“Expectation,” as I understand it, is the act of looking forward to a future event with at least some reason to believe the event will happen. God-given expectation is founded on some reason, which renders the event probable, or in the case of God’s Word, certain.

Throughout the Word of God, the Holy Spirit has established the expectation that only faith in the finished work of Jesus on the cross—not works or self-effort—is what makes us righteous and justified in the sight of God, and He describes faith in greater detail through the writer of the book of Hebrews.

Faith, my friend, is real, and it is the only way we please God (Hebrews 11:6). It is how we come to believe that He is, and that He is the rewarder of those that diligently seek Him.

Faith is substance and evidence, but only substance and evidence of things that can't be seen yet do, in fact, exist. Some people have mistakenly thought that faith believes in the notion that something is real when it really isn't, and if we believe it hard and long enough, it will become real. That's just misplaced fleshly desire and false hope.

There are spiritual realities that do exist, yet are unseen; they just exist in a realm that we can't see or perceive with our physical five senses. It takes a sixth sense called faith to perceive them. The carnal mind thinks that something doesn't really exist just because it can't see, taste, hear, smell, or feel it. (This characterizes walking by sight.)

We can't see television or radio signals, but they do exist. All we have to do to prove that is to take a television, plug it in, turn it on, and tune it in to a broadcasting frequency, resulting in the physical proof that something in the unseen realm exists. The reality is that when we see and hear the signal, is not the moment that it becomes real. It was real before. It just existed in a realm that we couldn't perceive by our physical five senses, just like electricity or TV signals. I'll be the first to admit that I do not understand electricity. All I know is that when I flip a switch, the light goes on, or when I plug my TV into an electrical socket, it turns on. The electricity was there, waiting for me to EMBRACE it and take advantage of its reality. I don't know about you, but I cannot perceive TV signals or electricity with my five senses; they only manifest their reality when I plug in and tune in.

Likewise, Jesus has provided everything we will ever need, which for us is already real. It does exist, but it exists in a spiritual form and realm that we are unable to perceive with our five senses; only with the sixth sense of faith can we perceive, EMBRACE, and then appropriate the promises of God. We have to believe that these things exist. I believe that TV signals and electricity exist, confirming that belief by plugging a TV into an electrical outlet and tuning it to a station that is broadcasting.

Our faith then becomes that receiver that takes what is already true in the spiritual realm and makes it physically manifest in the natural realm by tuning into what God has promised us. So, in a way, faith is the plug and God's promises are what we tune into.

Without going too deep in this, God says that, faith gives substance to what we hope for (His promises). If we lack hope, we can't exercise our faith. Hope then is the evidence of things not seen i.e., the promises of God—His desired result for our lives. Hope involves our positive imaginations; we desire what we do not yet see.

Therefore, putting all of this together, we have to first see the desired result (His promise) in our imaginations before our faith can call it into existence. We all use our imaginations; but with most people, it has become a vain imagination. God gave us an imagination for a reason, and I believe the Bible is referring to a positive imagination when it uses the word “hope.” God says, “As a man thinks in his heart, so is he.”

Just as we embrace electricity and TV signals by plugging in and tuning in, so we “EMBRACE GOD'S GRACE — HIS PROMISES” by plugging in with our faith and tuning into His promises for us.

Now the “Ace” in our “Race” becomes His “Grace.”

Thankfully, God keeps all of His promises, for He is not a man that He should lie or say something that He cannot deliver. His promises are made to YOU personally!

One of His greatest promises is that His Word will last FOREVER (Isaiah 40:8, Matthew 24:35, 1 Peter 1:23-25). I bring this up because human promises most often fail and disappoint us (ask me how I know); God's promises, however, sustain us. They are what our souls are looking for. They provide guidance, teaching, encouragement, forgiveness, joy, and the confidence of a secured future in Christ. They cover EVERY area of our lives and number well over 600, I'm told.

While this e-Book isn't a complete, nor even an exhaustive, presentation of God's promises, the point is to aid and encourage you in taking them personally. The hope is that you will use this e-Book presentation as a springboard to fully EMBRACE HIS GRACE and search out the depth, height, and width of God's riches toward YOU because this is what our souls are searching for.

GOD PROMISES A JOURNEY OF FAITH

Let's consider God's servant Mary.

An old Chinese proverb states that a journey of a thousand miles begins with the first step. For the purposes of wanting to keep this simple, I am going to offer you this simple overview of the process for the faith journey:

- A WORD OF PROMISE
- YOUR EXPECTATIONS
- CONFUSION
- WONDERING AND WANDERING
- FAITH LEADING TO PROMISES FULFILLED

Generally speaking, when we start a journey, we start with the end in mind.

God Promises a Journey of Faith

All of the Old Testament saints referred to in chapter 11 of the Book of Hebrews (Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Rahab, Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and all the prophets) exhibited faith that pleased God. They were all looking forward to the promise of redemption that didn't come in their lifetimes. In a sense, all their faith was on credit (i.e., that God would come and redeem them in the future).

Today as participants in the New Testament, we have already received our redemption. We, however, aren't saved by looking forward but rather by looking back at what is already a reality. How much more, then, should we trust in the Lord?

“It is written . . . It is FINISHED” WOW, that'll preach!

Regarding the promises of God, let's consider Mary.

The angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favor with God. You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will never end” (Luke 1:30-33 NIV).

God Promises a Journey of Faith

Notice the Angel did not say:

Do not be afraid because most people will not understand what I'm about to tell you and what you are about to go through. Your whole life will be disrupted and your initial joy will turn to sorrow before God is finished you. Your son will be misunderstood, mocked, rejected by many and then He will be beaten and crucified right before your very eyes.

No, the angel said to Mary,

“You have found FAVOR with God . . .”

“You will conceive and give birth to a Son . . .”

“He will be great . . .”

“He will be given a throne . . .”

“He will reign and His kingdom will never end.”

The Angel only mentioned the end game, not the journey.

None of us can really know what was going through Mary's mind as her life with Jesus unfolded, but given what we've all experienced, we can only imagine what thoughts may have flooded her mind at times: Confusion, fear, worry, anxiety, doubt, and perhaps questioning that she might have heard God wrong. Or how about, “This isn’t what I was expecting!”

Have you ever felt that way? Maybe you even do today? (I know I’m driving in someone’s neighborhood right now!)

Here are a couple of things we can learn from Mary’s life:

1] Just because what God has said to us doesn’t look the way we might have pictured or expected, doesn’t mean it’s not real or won’t come to pass.

Listen, we see that Jesus is indeed great and is in fact the Central Person in all of the history of mankind. He does have a throne and is actually sitting at the Right Hand of the Father. He is reigning over a Kingdom—His Kingdom—which will never end.

It just didn’t happen the way Mary probably expected. So what got her through it all? We know that Mary was a woman of great faith like Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Rahab, Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and all the prophets before her.

2] Then Mary SAID, “Behold, I am the handmaiden of the Lord; let it be done to me according to what you have said. And the angel left her” (Luke 1:38 AMP).

One can only imagine Mary, in keeping with her humanity and cultural constraints, might have kept repeating those same words to herself just as she did when the angel first spoke to her. Perhaps she softly spoke them as she leaned over the manger. Maybe she uttered it every time she overheard rumors and gossip about Jesus as she stood in the local market. I wonder if she offered it as a cry of grief and surrender at the foot of the cross.

“I am a servant of the Most High God, an Ambassador of Christ, let it be done unto me according to Your will” It is the one prayer we must never stop praying on the road to our God-given hopes and dreams.

I WANT TO INVITE YOU TO MAKE A CHANGE IN ORDER TO ENCOUNTER THE LOVE OF GOD THROUGH “EMBRACING HIS GRACE.” OPEN UP TO HIS LOVE ENCOUNTER. RELEASE HIS SPIRIT LIVING IN YOU TO TRANSFORM YOUR LIFE—THE WAY YOU THINK, THE WAY YOU ACT, YOUR EMOTIONS, YOUR FEELINGS, YOUR HEALTH, YOUR FINANCES, YOUR RELATIONSHIPS, ETC.

God Promises a Journey of Faith

Today is a new day to EMBRACE the Promises of God for your life because it is salvation to your soul, health to your body, and healing to your relationships. It focuses your eyes on the LORD and keeps you in perfect peace (not to mention our Joy being complete, John 16:23-24).

Regarding this change:

ARE YOU IN OR ARE YOU OUT? ARE YOU READY?

This Book of the Law [The Ways of God] shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may observe and do according to all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall deal wisely and have good success (Joshua 1:8 AMP).

Now this is personal!

EMBRACING GOD'S AMAZING GRACE

Your Love never fails; it never gives up;
it never gives up on me.

Nothing can separate me from Your great love! Your Love goes on and on. It overwhelms and satisfies my soul. This one thing remains—Your Love Never Fails. Your Grace never fails. This is unfailing love that You would take my place, that you would lay down Your life, that I would be set free; worthy is the Lamb who was slain and the King who conquered the grave. All that You've done for me . . . You're the One that guides my heart and satisfies my soul. Lord, I need you! Where Grace is found is where You are. You are my Portion, Provider, Provision, Hope, Righteousness, Defense, Encourager, Comforter, Savior, and LORD. Your love is better than life.

My heart is amazed from one day to the next. All of Your promises won't let go of me.

When we actually confess (confess with your mouth and believe in your heart) God's promises over our lives, we set the supernatural into motion. We walk by faith, not by sight, as we walk from earth into eternity.

ONE THING REMAINS

Prayer

Pray this with me:

“I want to tell you Jesus You are my heart’s desire . . .
You are the only One that can fill me up . . . only You can fully satisfy the deepest places in my heart. You are my heart’s desire & I choose to live to know You more!

I want to know You, let Your Spirit overwhelm me let Your Presence overtake my heart.

Great is your faithfulness.

I am yours . . . I belong to you . . . Seeking Your Truth as Your servant and ambassador, forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize belonging
to my calling from above by God.”

A Song of Grace

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4-gLdIO5G-Q#t=14>

Here I am before You, falling in love and seeking
Your truth

Knowing that Your perfect grace has brought me
to this place

Because of You I freely live, my life to You, oh
God, I give

So I stand before You, God

I lift my voice cause You set me free

So I shout out Your name, from the rooftops I proclaim

Jesus Culture: "Rooftops"

---

That I am Yours, I am Yours

All the good You've done for me, I lift up my hands for all to see

You're the only one who brings me to my knees
To share this love across the earth, the beauty of
Your holy worth

So I kneel before You, God

I lift my hands cause You set me free

So I shout out Your name, from the rooftops I
proclaim

That I am Yours, I am Yours

All that I am, I place into Your loving hands

And I am Yours, I am Yours

Here I am, I stand, with arms wide open
To the One, the Son, the Everlasting God"
